

9th November Book Launch of
London The Promised Land Revisited
The Changing Face of the London Migrant Landscape in the early 21st Century
Edited by Anne J Kershen
1.15-5pm
City Centre Seminar Room – School of Geography QMUL

Discussants will focus on a colleague's chapter – there will also be time for general discussion

Approximate Schedule:

1.15 - Welcome from Anne J Kershen (QMUL)

1.20 - Susanne Wessendorf (Birmingham University) will consider the main themes of the book

1.40 - Jonathan Rock (UCL) on Laura Vaughan's (UCL): 'The Ethnic Marketplace as Point of Transition'

2:00 - Frances Jones, (Head of Policy, Stoke-on-Trent Council) on Michael Keating's: 'Knowing our Communities – It doesn't have to be that difficult'.

2.20 - Michal Garapach (Univ. of Roehampton) on John Eade's (Univ. of Roehampton): 'Who Speaks for the Subaltern in a Postcolonial Metropolis.'

2.40 – Mary Hickman (St. Mary's Univ.) on Bronwen Walter's (Anglia Ruskin): 'Migrants and Descendants: Multi-Generations of Irish in London in the 21st century'.

3.00 – John Eade on Michal Garpach's: 'London as an informal and individualistic Paradise'.

Refreshment served 3.20-3.30

3.30 – Olivia Sheringham (QMUL) on Cathy McIlwaine's (QMUL): 'Latin London – Negotiating Invisibility among Latin Americans in London'.

3.50 – Sheila Hillier (QMUL) on Veronica White's (Barts and the Royal London): 'Ethnicity and Culture in 21st Century Medicine'.

4.10 – Valerie Delpech (Public Health England and Keele Univ.) on Jane Anderson's (QMUL and Homerton NHS): 'The Presence and Treatment of Infection in the Migrant Population of London'.

4.30. Closing points

5.00 End